

1st Nordic Conference on Forest Policy Science

October 13-15, 2010, Uppsala/Sweden

Conference

The 1st Nordic Conference on Forest Policy Science to be held from October 13-15 in Uppsala is the first meeting of the newly established 'Nordic Network on Forest Policy Science'. It aims to provide a forum for forest policy research outlined by Nordic researchers or on Nordic forest policy subjects.

Conference Venue

The conference will take place at Eklundshof in Uppsala. Eklundshof is a cosy place in the nature located between Uppsala city centre and the campus of SLU. For more information about Eklundshof: <http://www.eklundshof.se/>

For the participants of our conference special-priced rooms are pre-reserved in the hotel at the conference venue (single room: 945 SEK/night, double room: 1215SEK/night – incl. breakfast). Please make your room reservations on your own by referring to the confirmation number 72183.

Public Transport:

By flight: Stockholm-Arlanda Airport is close to Uppsala. To get to Uppsala, there are several airport shuttles and trains every hour from Arlanda Airport. The train departs directly in the airport between Terminal 3 and 4. The flygbussen has the number 801 and departs directly outside the terminals. Leave the bus at the final destination centralstationen in Uppsala.

By train: Uppsala centralstationen is well connected with Stockholm and whole Uppland, details for your travel plans you can find at the webpage: <http://www.sj.se/>.

From centralstationen: From centralstationen you can take the local bus (No 20 in the direction Graneberg or 110 or 115 in the direction Ultuna). Leave the bus at the stop Polacksbacken. Directly in front of the University is a roundabout, there you head downhill in the direction of Eklundshovsvägen. After 400m Eklundshof appears on the left hand.
