

Course schedule for Euroforester (SM008) academic year 2024/2025

This is the recommended study outline for the programme (preliminary for the second year i.e. academic year 2025/2026).

	Autumn semester										Spring semester														Summer
	Period 1 a					Period 1 b					Period 2 a					Period 2 b					Period 3 a					Period 3 b					Period 4 a					Period 4 b
First year profile courses	Silviculture of Temperate Forests, 15 credits										Sustainable Forest Management - Analysis and Adaptations, 15 credits										National and International Forest Policy, 15 credits										Broadleaves - History, Ecology and Management, 15 credits
Second year elective courses	Forest Regeneration, 7,5 credits					Forest Modelling, 7,5 credits					Urban Forestry – Management of Urban Forests and Trees, 15 credits
											Forest Conservation Biology, 15 credits
Master's thesis	Master's thesis in Forestry Science, 30 credits										Master's thesis in Forestry Science, 30 credits																														Master's thesis in Forestry Science, 30 credits*
	Master's thesis in Forestry Science, 60 credits																																			* continues in to the autumn semester									