

Sveriges lantbruksuniversitet
Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences

The Swedish Livestock Research Centre
Faculty of Veterinary Medicine and Animal Science

Enquiry to Swedish Livestock Research Centre - Education at the animal facility

The Swedish Livestock Research Centre offers animal housing for research and teaching. There are facilities for dairy cattle, pigs and poultry. An enquiry for external visits should be received at least two months before requested date of visit.

Facility to visit: Dairy cattle, pig or poultry.

Type of visit: Educational, study visit or other (specify)

Type of visitors: Internal from SLU. External- students (University). External - students (other). Private enterprise. External - other (specify).

Requested date, time, number of visitors. If SLU-course, state code and teacher.

Requirements, information, supervision - specify

Contact information: Name, e-mail and phone number

Your application will be processed by our research- and education coordinators.

Send your application to: utbildning-vh-ladugard@slu.se

The information registered in this form will be processed by SLU. In order to make a decision in regards to your application for education at the animal facility, SLU needs to process your personal data. You can read more about how SLU processes personal data at www.slu.se/personal-data

Yes, I understand that the data about me in connection with this application is stored and processed.