

Grants from the Swedish research council, VR, to Björn Olsen & Josef Järhult

The two Uppsala university representatives in One Health Sweden's steering group, professor; MD Björn Olsen and PhD, MD Josef Järhult, have been awarded grants from the Swedish research council VR; Section Medicine and Health for two four-year periods (Molecular mechanisms for the spread of Influenza A-virus between species and Antimicrobial resistance in the environment and its significance for Human health).

Grant from the Swedish Civil Contingencies Agency MSB to Karin Artursson

The SVA representative in One Health Sweden's steering group, professor, DVM Karin Artursson has been awarded a grant from Swedish Civil Contingencies Agency MSB for a three-year project studying communication of One Health to children.

FORMAS project partnership, Björn Olsen & Lotta Berg

The SLU representative professor, DVM, Lotta Berg and UU's representative professor, MD, Björn Olsen from OHS steering group have been awarded as partners in a three-year FORMAS project "Cities and nature – risks and possibilities in a world based on One Health thinking".