

Visualize your Science - Time and place for face-to face sessions

The course Visualize your Science is a mix of online modules and face-to-face sessions. Theory and drawing tutorials are online whereas feedback sessions are face-to-face. We will meet in four face-to-face sessions. The first three face-to-face sessions will take place at the SLU Ultuna campus while the fourth is organized as a mini-conference in Stockholm. For this last session, participants will need to print an A0 poster. The research school Organism Biology will cover all reasonable expenses associated with the concluding mini-conference, including costs for travelling and printing a poster.
