

Sessions Wednesday 8th of November

	Theme 1. Seeing rural space: territorial resilience and rural mobilization	Theme 2. Place-based development and rural livelihoods	Theme 3. The role of natural resources in rural transformation	Theme 4. Networks, skills and changing labour markets	Theme 5. Demographic Change and Migration	Theme 6. Sustainable planning for rural areas - Book launch
Session 1 Kl. 13.00			Folkets Hus 3 3.1 Planting Mollaoglu: Climate interventions and private interests: Wind power, forestry and reindeer herding in Härjedalen 3.2 Reimerson/Brännström: Challenges and opportunities for local natural resource management in Sápmi: Insights from the Rádestit project 3.3 Kuoljok: Reindeer husbandry - a part of the regional economy	Folkets Hus 4 4.1 Friman/Glass: Exploring social learning networks for enhancing multi-use forestry and rural development in Sweden 4.2 Svensson: Knowledge, competence and education – what do we need?	Folkets Hus 2 5.1 Amcoff: Presence of immigrants in rural areas 5.2 Khaef/Haandrikman: The initial residential patterns of immigrants across the Urban hierarchy in Sweden: the role of educational attainment 5.3 Sahlström: Migrant relations and rural environments: a neglected dimension in sustainable development
Session 2 Kl. 14.15	Folkets Hus 1 1.1 Kilje: A State of Crisis After Folkhemmet? Uncertain Times and Safe Communities in North Uppland 1.2 Löwgren: Tracing the view of the Swedish countryside over 50 years 1.3 Roos et al: Visions for sustainable rural areas in Sweden – Does the entrepreneurs and the innovation support system see the same future?	Folkets Hus 2 2.1 Nilsson: Sustainable transport in rural towns – Shifts of travel behaviour when opening railway stations 2.2 Westin/Johansson: Potential reductions in fossil fuel consumption for personal transportation in rural areas – the views of rural residents. 2.3 Sörensson/Jansson: Success Factors to Consider for Rural Municipalities when Establishing Large Scale Industrial Parks	Folkets Hus 3 3.4 Gillette/Vesterberg: Forgotten fish: Reterritorializing seafood for Swedish rural development 3.5. Hellstrand/Karlsson: Ecosystem services as a driver of a balanced development of urban and rural areas-	Folkets Hus 4 4.3 Lindberg et al: Crafting Rural Futures: Information Systems Rooted in the Nordic Tradition 4.4 Johannisson: Mobilizing the Regional Universities in the Making of a Resourceful Rural Sweden 4.5 Johansson et al: Rekrytering och delaktighet i högre studier för unga från landsbygd
Session 3 Kl. 16.00	Folkets Hus 1 1.4 Hultgren/Kvist: Learnings from a small pilot study on Local Narratives about resilience and integration in segregated Local communities 1.5 Karlsson: Ruling Spaces. On the asymmetrical spatial relations between urban forest owners and rural dwellers	Folkets Hus 2 2.4 Sjöberg: How to plan and build a socially sustainable society - A case study of Grundsunda 2030 2.5 Rytkönen et al: Island Research in the Swedish Context – Opening up a new research area and mapping research gaps. 2.6 Tillmar/Jogmark: Interplay of Sectors in Rural Settings: Collaboration Dynamics, Challenges, and Boundary Spanners	Folkets Hus 3 3.6 Rahn: Participation, private ownership and the state 3.7 Shirkhani: How Participatory Digital Platforms address the context of Natural resource- based conflicts		Folkets Hus 4 5.4 Gladoic Håkansson/Karpestam: The Great Escape. Why women escape the rural, while men don't 5.5 Wahlström: Different ways of going “back-to-the-land” in Sweden today 5.6. Amcoff: Development of back to the land -migration in Sweden in the early 21 st century

Sessions Thursday 9th of November

	Theme 1. Seeing rural space: territorial resilience and rural mobilization	Theme 2. Place-based development and rural livelihoods	Theme 3. The role of natural resources in rural transformation	Theme 4. Networks, skills and changing labour markets	Theme 5. Demographic Change and Migration	Theme 6. Sustainable planning for rural areas - Book launch
Session 4 Kl. 10.00	Folkets Hus 1 1.7 Ferguson/Gaddefors: Populism and activism in rural entrepreneurship 1.8 Jungsberg/Cedergren: Enhancing participation of least engaged groups in the just transition - Legitimacy and Territorial Perspectives in the Just Transition through Futures Literacy Labs 1.9 Pettersson: Spatialities of sustainability transition governance – hybrid actor constellations and strategies in the wild berry industry	Folkets Hus 2 2.7 Mamonova/Fuglestad: Rural reawakening in Norway 2.8 Zhang/ Webster: Rural digitalization 2.0: Digging into context, everyday life and rural digital geographies	Folkets Hus 3 3.8 Börjeson/Säfström/Kuns: Farm work and green transitions 3.9 Eckerberg/Bjärstig/Miljand: Steering ‘green’ innovation policy toward sustainability? Lessons from implementing EIP-AGRI in Sweden 3.10. Hegelund: Rethinking lowland soils: Negotiations between farmers’ freedom and state authority	Folkets Hus 4 4.6 Fjellman/Johansson/Öhrn: Opportunities in rural upper secondary education – variations in space and time 4.7 Lundberg/Fjellman/Ennerberg: The Natural Resource Use Programme and a resilient countryside
Session 5 Kl. 11.15		Folkets Hus 2 2.9 Asztalos Morell: Culturally adequate food for Sami elderly in the public kitchen in municipalities 2.10 Jansson: Online funeral homes - from local anchoring to spatial differentiation 2.11 Hammarlund/Nordin: Saving countryside shops – does government support increase survival and economic performance of grocery stores in rural Sweden?		Folkets Hus 4 4.8 Rönnlund/Tollefsen: Staying on in a Changing Local Labor Market – Young People’s School-to-Work Transitions in Rural Northern Sweden 4.9 Forsberg/Vallström: Youth in Rural Areas - Presentation of a Research Network		Folkets Hus 3 6.1 Stenbacka/Hermelin: Planning for the good life in rural areas – introduction to the book 6.2 Cras et al: Understanding practices of civil society through resource mobilization theory 6.3 Hermelin: Collaborative governance for local development – place-based initiative in a rural environment 6.4 Stenbacka: International migration and local welfare 6.5 Heldt Cassel/Stenbacka: Socially sustainable housing in rural areas